Best selling novelist Karen Stevens has it all --a hit book, a loving husband and a wonderful son about to graduate from the Air Force Academy. A picture perfect life-that unravels in an instant when she meets her son's fiancÃ©e's parents. She comes face to face with her past as David Carlson, a long forgotten lover, is introduced as the father of the bride. Only Karen knows he may also be the father of the groom. She must grapple with her past, her present and her future. She must find out if David is really her son's father. David, locked in a hateful shell of a marriage, is stunned by Karen's reappearance in his life, with a new name, a new husband, and a son. His long repressed feelings for Michelle, now Karen, surface with a vengeance. He can't afford to acknowledge them or their relationship. His wife, Suzanne, would delight in having a past to throw in his face. Karen and David's lives crumble as they struggle to do what's right. They must try to help their children, even if it means destroying their own lives, as the tangled web ensnares them all. Everyone learns the folly of keeping even Little Secrets. Author: Crow, Connie
