Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Dan DeChellis (Piano) The music of Dan DeChellis combines his love of classic Pop/Rock, Jazz and Modern Classical Music . He cites influences as wide as Chick Corea, Brian Eno, Bill Evans, Sting, Charles Ives and the music of Bach. He has released 6 critically acclaimed cd's on his own record label, Sachimay Records and has been the recipient of two Meet the Composer Grants, one of which took him to San Francisco as a guest performer/composer at New Langton Arts. His music has been heard on the radio throughout Europe and his live performances in New York and Boston have included numerous appearances at the Knitting Factory, Tonic, Scullers (Boston), the Improvised Otherwise Festival (NY) and The Autumn Uprising (Boston). Most recently he was nominated by his peers as "Best Pianist" and "Best All-Around Performer" at the Lehigh Valley Music Awards and last year, as a founding member of the group, ThreeMonKs, he won "Best New Artist" and "Best Live Jazz Performance". His current trio is focused on original compositions and re-working of Pop and Jazz standards. Mitch Shelly (Bass) A performer for over 20 years, Mitch has earned the respect of the Lehigh Valley as one of the most diverse and exciting bass players in the area. Either working in the blues, rock, fusion or jazz, his level of intensity and drive is exciting to watch and listen to. Rian Carr (Drums) At 28 years old, Rian Carr has been playing drums for nearly 15 years. Studying music with accomplished drummers ranging from Joe Morrello to Kevin Sofferra, Rian has incorporated many different styles and techniques into a style all his own. Currently, Rian occupies the drum chair in the popular Dan Dechellis Trio.
