(Im not kidding you as I sit here writing while listening to this CD, I find Im typing in clave!) Rumbeando En El Solardelivers hard-driving authenticity, sparkling musicianship and dazzling originality throughout. Seven of its nine tracks were penned by Dave Santiago, Sr. and members of Latin Affair, and all arrangements -- including those of two refreshingly-presented standards -- plus the releases recording, artwork, and production, are in-house. Made in NYC. Core members onboard with founding bandleader, lead vocalist and percussionist Dave, Sr. are his son, flutist, arranger and now, Latin Affairs musical director, Dave, Jr. a prodigy whos matured artistically before our eyes -- plus mega-talented bassist Willie Rodriguez (son of the late Roberto Rodriguez, Sr.), amazing pianist Amy Millan, conguero, Rolando takin- it-to-the-next level Ramos, and original member, timbalero/bongocero Danny Morales, trombonist, arranger-extraordinaire and main staple, Rick Faulkner, stellar Grammy award winner and nominee trumpeter Ray Vega, original member and composer, tres, cuatro and guitar maestro Luis Carrasceo Rodriguez, inimitable lead vocalist Pete Pagan (the-guy-whose-energy-rivals-that-TV commercial-rabbits), and talented newcomer, singer/composer Chuito Dejesus. Add dynamic trumpeter Vicente Cantu, bongocero Jose Pee wee Quintana, and invited guests conguero Tito Roque, guitarist John Campos, trombonist Dave Chamberlain, pianist Edwin

Sanchez , violinist Ali Bello, and voice overs by Evelyn Rojas to the mix, and the result is a must-have production that inspires, energizes and heals -- physically, emotionally and spiritually. Rumbeando En El Solar elegantly bridges the past, present and future, as well as generational divides. Showcasing Luis Rodriguezs and John Campos eloquent Cuatro and Guitar artistry is the touching Don Aquilino, composed by Dave Santiago, Sr., a goose bump-rendering number not only paying tribute to his father, who passed away before the recording was completed, but also, in Santiagos words, to our Jibaro heritage, and those who paved the way for us here in the U.S. And after all is said and done, concludes the bandleader, Dave Santiago Latin Affair never forgets its Bronx roots, and represents that Latin music with a New York attitude, everywhere they go! And they just keep getting better and better! Vicki Sola, 89.1 WFDU-FM radio host/producer of Que Viva La Musica, and columnist, Latin Beat Magazine
