ARcabascio's GOAL: To continue learning + exploring new artist + genres of music As long as I luv music Ill continue making CDs for my fans + myself. If the luv doesnt fade then neither will my desire.. ARcabascio's VISION: My dream job would be a Radio DJ or promoter of music + artist. I know that I have an ear for music + talent, but my strengths arent in live mixing per say, but more in the recording phase, editing tracks or re-mixing a track. I love exploring + discovering new upcoming talent + defining different variations of genres of music ARcabascio's MISSION: To keep doing what I luv to do on my spare time. That would be listening to new music, finding new artist, researching new equipment + staying humble yet determined in my goal of someday doing this for a living. I live music without a doubt, I want to be evolved in some aspect with either a famous DJ, Record Label , Radio Station or Annual Event to say I have made my dreams come true!
