An avid musician from a young age, Cuffs raw, edgy, and emotional songs delve into the realms of folk, blues, funk and reggae. From a live review... "Armed with only a classical guitar and a pocketful of stories, he captivated the audience with his solo performance Jacob explained that he has trouble distancing himself from the deep subject matter of his songs while on stage. The singer was visibly shaking after the powerful Queer Lullaby, an ode to a time in his life when he felt hopeless, unable to help a good friend in time of need. His aura, and presence on stage, were striking, and his melodies took on a haunting atmosphere that only a classical guitar can bring, none more so than on the title track from his new EP, I Am."
