A round-the-world ocean adventure in music and actual animal sounds. 20 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: When does a walrus sound like a bell? Whats a seven-letter word for sea cow? What do polar bears cover up when theyre stalking something? Hear these and many other mysteries REVEALED in this collection of raucous, sing-able, information- and fun-packed songs! Best of all, youre not just singing to the music youre singing with the animals, too! Real, honest-to-goodness animal sounds are part of the music. Youll hear penguins squawking in chorus, sea otters squeaking in rhythm, porpoises pinging, walruses ringing, Humpback whales sounding, and much, much more. The album includes instrumental versions of all the songs so you can sing them on your own, or even make up your own lyrics if you want to. Daughters of Water, Sons of the Sea was named best sing-along car album by the National Library Association the year it was released. We hope you have as much fun listening to and singing these songs as we had recording them. Like the song says, youll discover the sea magically, when you come with me! If youd like written copies of the lyrics you can email me (Jesse Boggs) at jboggs@sonic.net. Ill send you a file with all the lyrics.
