Brazilian saxophonist's first album solo. A modern-open-spiritual jazz with original compositions. It features Tenor and soprano saxes, guitar, Fender Rhodes piano, bass and drums. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: Jorge Continentino is a saxophone and Flute player from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, currently residing in New York City. He has recorded and played with many of Brazil's foremost recording artists, such as: Milton Nascimento, Ed Motta, Marisa Monte, Durval Ferreira, Skank, Zeca Baleiro, Moraes Moreira, and many, many more. Jorge has two brothers who play on the album, Alberto and Kiko, on bass and piano respectively. Described by one Florida newspaper as the Marsalis family of Brazil, the three brothers form the experimental jazz-fusion group Continentrio. Their self-entitled album, "Continentrio", released in 2003, is also available on CD Baby. "Portrait" is a collection of original jazz compositions played elegantly and with an intensity and sincerity that flow uninterrupted from beginning to end. At its core the band is a trio of drums, bass, and saxophone, joined at times by guitar and at others by Fender Rhodes. Enjoy the music, and let the artist know what you think about it. You are always welcome to leave your comments, and if you like it, please tell your friends. Thank you. Peace
