Alternative Details: Lisanne was born on the 4th of July in Somerset England, a stone's throw from Stonehenge, and though she has travelled the world, her mysterious Celtic roots remain a part of her sound and substance. A natural comedian with a strong background in music and performance art, Lisanne has appeared on radio, stage and in the film-noir, " Apartment Zero," starring Colin Firth .From her early days at the John Wood Studios in London, to her stint as a professional DJ on a Greek cruise liner, in the trendy Costa Del Sol club of Grand Prix winner James Hunt, and in Montreal's mega-disco in "The Four Seasons Hotel", music has always been a major part of Lisanne's life. In 1991 her one woman play "The bald Waitress" debuted at Los Angeles's Rose Theatre, written and performed by Lisanne , directed by Lesley Kyle-Wilson. Playing many different characters, Lisanne's memoir performance wove its way from her adolescent days in a weirdly Gothic English boarding school.... to her survival-arrival in the circus atmosphere of the Venice beach boardwalk in LA, where she took on jobs as varied as a Thanksgiving turkey ,a Valentine Clown and referring people to a dentist near them. Her unique blend of Pythonesque humour, plaintive melodies and searing lyrics ,investigating the strangeness of youth, and remembering the truth of who we are. In 1992 she went full force with her music. Her first CD "Lisanne" exploring the lives as women, cellulite and all, followed by "Trance Ported" where her vocal talents and experimentation with voice-as-instrument began to explode. Her latest CD, "Life , in Full Bloom" released in June 2006, takes the subject further into new realms/pure joy of sound/pure joy of vibration/. She has opened for Marianne Williamson and most recently, performed to a sold out crowd with bestselling author of "Writing down the Bones" Natalie Goldberg, as part of the S.O.M.O.S Performance Series in Taos, New Mexico. Lisanne has just returned from a tour of England where she performed at the Saftesbury

Arts' Theatre and the Bruton Festival. "Life in Full Bloom" is now available and will soon be here at CDbaby. check out her web site taosexperience.com/lisanne if you click on the rose you will get to see 2 videos.!Lisanne is currently working on a fourth CD that will just be "sounds," using her voice as the only instrument.
