The album was mixed and co produced by Regie Butler a long time friend who had a wealth of experience and had recorded with or performed with everyone from Jimi Hendrix to Jah Moon and every one in between. All tracks were recorded on the Roland VS880 and delivered to Mr. Butler where they were mixed and mastered using Logic software. Flower Penn was there as a mediator during intense discussions on performance and mixes. But the end result is an epic journey of passion and ideas! Currently we have been performing around L.A putting the finishing touches on the band getting ready to embark on an endless tour coming to your back yard soon so remember the name Livingood and prepare to be blown away.
