Her grandfather was a pianist, and her father encouraged her to listen to classical jazz and other music styles while growing up. Music was a huge outlet for her. She used to sit all day with her headphones on which made her parents worried! Mari P received her Bachelor's of Performing Arts at SUNY. After finishing her degree from SUNY, Mari fled the hustle and bustle of NYC for the relatively relaxed lifestyle of Northern California. Now 24, Mari P credits Shannon, Alicia Keys, Madonna, and Prince as major influences of her singing style, as heard on her debut single. She also credits House and Freestyle directly influencing her style today. Mari P continues to develop her unique musical mix of Freestyle, R&B, Hip-Hop, and Reggaton. Mari P feels that touching listeners in their hearts keeps her performing. Connecting with people through music as music really affects people's emotions feels important to her. Mari P wants to spread music and help inspire people in their daily lives. She chose her name, Mari P, for the initial expression of freedom represented by the release of the butterfly from its cocoon and compares it to the explosion of her new release from Unique Elementz. She has worked with various artists, including dance artists such as Caleb B, Adrianna, and Luis Uribe, to Bay Area rap artists such as Cuddie Cut, JenRo, Louie Loc and Mr. Kee. Mari P expresses the desire for her fans to do what you love and to never let fear get in their way. Mari says, "Listen to your heart and keep your dreams close to your heart." She hopes these songs help her fans to express themselves, connect through the music and relate to the stories she weaves with her voice.
