Eclectic pop/rock 13 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Modern Rock Details:

RicSandler was performing the classics with distinct professionalism before he was seven. In his early teens, he was already writing and performing original 'serious' works for his high school and a local playhouse. Ric had his own rock band by age eleven, and by fifteen, he and his band was backing up the legendary R&B master Lloyd Price and opening shows for The Soul Survivors and The Rascals. By the time he graduated high school, Sandler had already been signed to an exclusive publishing contract that led him to Los Angeles, where Ric worked with such legends as Hal Blaine, Larry Carlton, Lee Ritenour, Lee Sklar, The Porcaros, and many more. Ric wrote for Sony Music and Warner Chappell and recorded for himself as well. While Dionne Warwick, Jermaine Jackson and Anne Murray were recording his songs, he scored, including Ralph Bakshi's "Hey Good Lookin". He toured with Tanya Tucker, playing with Chuck Berry, and working the club circuit, as well. In 2000 The Dixie Hummingbirds did one of Ric's songs on their Grammy nominated album, "Music in the Air.". Ric resettled in New Jersey coast and has used his wealth of experience to create his first solo album, RHYTHMUNDERGROUND, under his own Rich Id label. Two of the songs, RUBIES and I'LL LET YA KNOW, were Top 20 radio hits in the AC format in 2002-2003.
