Sharon Kross an amazing vocal talent performing country originals and hear her debut single. If You'd Walk My Way 13 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Sharon Mayer was born on September 20, 1963 into a large family with 4 sisters and 2 brothers. Her young life was filled with many hardships, both physical and financial. Yet, despite her rough beginnings, she maintained a caring spirit and tried to help out as much as she could. This spirit was nurtured by both her mother and music. Sharon found strength through such artists as Karen Carpenter, Olivia Newton-John, Anne Murray and many others. At an early age, Sharon entertained her family and friends with her singing at home and at some local establishments. Her dream was to become a popular female vocalist like the ones she grew up listening to. Sharon was encouraged by the words of her late mother, Catherine Mayer, who always told her " Sharon, you have a god-given talent in the angelic voice of yours, so follow your dream and share it with the world". With those words echoing through her mind, Sharon hope of attaining her dream was increased with her most recent "on stage" exposure singing back-up and singing lead as a solo artist in an effort to raise money for the National Kidney Foundation. Sharon continues to entertain for many other charity events as well for her regular audiences. Now in 2004 Sharon has done what she always wanted to do. That was to record her own song and she did so. The new single was recorded at Shore fire Studios in Long branch, NJ where the La Bamba Soundtrack was recorded at. Sharon's New Release is titled "If You'd Walk My Way" Sharon's wish is to inspire others to follow their dreams as much as she strives to keep following her own no matter what age you're her if you have a goal /or a dream Follow it.
