Delightful melodies from the folk tradition of the 14th to 18th centuries, arranged for Celtic Harp 16 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: "Honey's playing is soulful, even is that isn't the right word for Celtic harp music. She clearly has a profound feel for this music and we are the winners for her keeping it alive." -Chris Jorgensen, Jackson Citizen Patriot "...a unique and powerfully bewitching performance." -Folk on Tap, UK "Her style is reflective and thoughtful and creates a distinct presence among harpists." -Dirty Linen "...her rhythmic prowess and ability to draw out multiple voices from the single instrument make these pieces sing." -Victory Review Childhood fascination with the harp blossomed into a career for this Houston native. Therese Honey's entrancing virtuosity and vast knowledge of early music evoke another time and place. She's a superb arranger as well. Ms. Honey won first place at the Gulf Coast Celtic Harp competitions of 1994 and 1995. Historical notes enhance the recording. Therese Honey's artistry is a magical confluence of devoted scholarship, superb technique, and profound qualities of soul. She welcomes her listeners to a place of rest, reflection and reverence.
