Details: Vance, is a singer, songwriter and performer who has entertained audiences for many years as a solo performer and with other groups. He has a sound of his own and a versatility that goes beyond the songs of one style of music, illustrating his influence by songwriters and artists spanning decades. Vance is known for his keen lyrical sense and perfectly arranged harmonies. His first solo CD release, Here Goes SOMETHing! is a long awaited collection of original tunes he penned over the last two decades. Since late 2001 he has been Music Director for Hermans Hermits Starring Peter Noone and entertained audiences with his dynamic performance as lead guitarist. Prior to Hermans Hermits Vance performed as a solo artist and with bands at the top clubs in New York City including the Hard Rock Caf, Peppermint Lounge, China Club and Irving Plaza. In 1986 The Monkees recorded and made a million seller of Vances song, That was Then, This Is Now as the theme for their comeback tour. It was the title song from a five song EP that Vance released with his group, The Mosquitos, in 1985. He was lead vocalist, songwriter and guitarist for The Mosquitos during their run in the early to mid 80s as one of the most popular club bands in the Long Island and NYC area. The Mosquitos were known for their original songs when most other bands were doing covers exclusively. Their hard driving performances took them from Sparks, a local Long Island venue, to clubs in New York City including the Peppermint Lounge, Beacon Theater, Irving Plaza and Folk City.
