Newlyweds Meredith and Quinn McAllister are made for each other. They come from similar unstable backgrounds and have pulled themselves up by their own ambition and determination. Quinn has no qualms about agreeing to Meredith's stipulation that they have no children. That is until five days after their wedding when he learns his best friend, his 'brother' from Boys Town days, and wife are dead and Quinn has inherited three pre-school children, whom he'd long ago promised to raise should something happen to their parents. Quinn is faced with a major problem. What is an honorable man supposed to do? In order to keep one promise, he must break another. Meredith, too, is caught in a dilemma. She knows she isn't mother material. She has focused taking her career to the highest level of success in the shortest amount of time. But how can she refuse to take the orphans into her home without revealing her deepest, darkest secret? Can the McAllister's new-found love survive this unexpected, drastic change to their carefully made plans? Author: McBlain, Ginny Publisher: Awe-Struck E-Books, Inc.
