Now it doesnt matter, you can still make a living playing golf. You dont have to be the best. You dont even have to win to get paid! Lots of people are currently making a handsome living just from playing golf for businesses and business executives. How is this possible? Ill tell you, plus youll discover how to... Stop paying to play golf. Get PAID to do something you love, possibly as a full-time business! Work on your game while on the clock! Friday, July 27, 2012 Dear Golfing-Enthusiast, Would you love to play golf all day and get paid for it? Despite what you may have thought, it IS possible. Even if youre not a true pro golfer. (You dont even have to be nearly as good.) Inside the US, more money is spent on golf than any other sport. And now you can claim your piece of the pie! How? Business Executives Often Hire People To Play Golf

With Their Clients For Them! Its true! There are golfers who make a living simply by playing golf with clients of executives who know how important a leisurely game of golf can be for their business. Business executives often like to wine and dine, and offer a game of golf to their clients. (A lot of business decisions are made over a game of golf!) But often times, these executives choose not to play themselves. And for three common reasons... They simply do not have time in the day to play 9-18 holes of golf. Some executives are embarrassed by their poor golf game. Many executives have never even played before! And they certainly dont want to bore their client or make the game drag behind on account of them. Because of this, theres a huge market for professional golf escorts. Someone who knows the game well enough to go out and show these clients a good time and a good game over 18 holes. You Dont Have To Compete With Tiger Woods To Play Golf Professionally Maybe you played golf in high school, in college or even tried to go pro.
