Buzzy calls it New Mexico Moon Music. You know, the kind of songs you want to hear while youre sitting under the moon on a summer night. Buzzy grew up in a Top 40 world but got interested in country music after hearing some Hank Williams songs. From there, he began to enjoy folk, blues and good old rock and roll. Good Gone Bad is an eclectic collection of all original songs. Here they are: On the Mainlane Raindrops and sunsets on the Interstate. Good Gone Bad Lets mix people and politics. A protest song. Peach Colored Dress Country music, a lovely girl, and a waltz in Red River. Lost In the Blues A soldier far from home. First Sight For Patty. Soldier of Fortune The story of a full throttle wild man. Unspoken Thoughts Let your mind go. Slow Train Take a 12-bar blues ride. Cheetahs Wall of Sound Great recordings from a studio by the tracks and the airport. And, as a special surprise, theres a ghost track on the end. Give this album a try- youre going to like it.
