Reggae dub mix with sounds of the islands. 14 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: CHARLES "KEITH" HURLOCK Charles Hurlock also know as "Keith" was born in the parish of St. James, Jamaica, January 26, 1954. Growing up in a musical family, his talent developed very early. Having three prodigious brothers before him became his inspiration. His first album "Messages" provides a unique glimpse into his motivations, his outlook on life, thoughts, ideas and inspiration. PRESS Sharon Kirby, Times Staff Writer states, "Charles Hurlock sings about trouble in the world and universal love. His lyrics touch on war, but also on the humanity of all people and what they can do to help one another". The Weekly Star, April 8-14, 1999 states, "When Keith Hurlock hits the stage, the dance floor usually gets full almost immediately. He hails from Montego Bay, Jamaica playing and creating music for many years. He does reggae music the Jamaican way. He has toured regularly in Washington D.C., New york, Connecticut, and California, among other cities".
