An acoustic and electric blend of songs from the heart... anyone can relate ...you may have been there yourself. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Dan Fluegel is a modern day musician/singer/songwriter that released his first CD in 2002. It is called "No Accident". The songs make you feel that you've lived them. It has a rock quality with mostly acoustic instrumentation. It has two songs that are in the August 2003 release feature film "Summer of Tomorrows": "Realtime" and "What is Love?" "Realtime" is an heartfelt emotion, and "What is Love?" answers the age old question. "A Journey" was written for his son Danny, and "Song for Jackie" for his daughter. "Reno", "Untitled for D", and "The Procession" are acoustic guitar instrumentals. " "Wanderin" has a beach-style feel to it with its steel drums, and check out the "sold my soul to the devil" slide on "Thanks for the Sandwich." If thought provoking lyrics and catchy musical passages excite you, check out this 2002 release from Dan Fluegel. Also check out "Borrowed Time", a blend of brand new songs which will soon be for sale on CD baby. Eight new songs that speak about the issues confronting us in real life. A radical departure from No Accident, these songs are simple, honest and to the point.
