Original inspirational tunes with a Southern Gospel flavor ... up tempo ... some humorous ... but always meant to inspire and get you tapping your toes ... thanks for listening ... db 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: I have been blessed to be able to work with some of the nicest, most talented musicians in the world who live and work in Nashville, Tennessee ... and almost everyone there plays country music ... and gospel music ... When you grow up in the Bible Belt of America and your parents take you to church every week - especially if that church is a pentacostal church - you get some "good vibrations" in your heart, mind, and soul that if pushed in the right direction can lead to some pretty interesting creativity... For me that creative juice flowed and manifested itself in the form of the Southern Gospel lyrics that you will hear me sing on this CD. If you enjoy it a tenth as much as I enjoy performing these tunes in concert ... then you will achieve the experience I had in mind for the listener when I wrote and recorded this album ... HUMOR? YES! ... "Let's Give The Devil A Bad Hair Day" INSPIRATIONAL? YES! ... from the title track to the wedding song that I have performed many times during the nuptials ie. "Smart Final" ... my aim is to make you smile ... get you to contemplate ... and of course bless your pea-picken' heart ... Thanks for listening ... thanks for supporting my songwriting habit with your generosity ... and thanks for inviting me into your life ... I know we will meet somewhere out on the trail ... If you like what you hear by all means invite me to sing at your church, event, or wedding ... next to writing good songs my favorite thing to do is travel!
