"MUSIC FLIGHT" started it all for DARIN TALBOT with the breakthrough track "TWEAKER SHRED MASTER", a tune that DR. DEMENTO called "A New Legend In The Making". This epic song about a kamikaze snowboarder won an Internet song contest and secured Talbot the right to open for The Brian Setzer Orchestra at Hugh Hefner's Playboy Mansion and for the Beach Boys at Sacramento Valley Amphitheatre. Talbot's music - and his life - are permeated with these three items..." -TAHOE MOUNTAIN NEWS "Talbot's got Cat Steven's voice, Harry Chapin's melodies, and Jimmy Buffett's love of good times in his easy going tunes on snowboarding slacker... Talbot's good vibes are infectious." -MEAN STREET MAGAZINE "Bluesy pop-folk meets a distinct GenX sensibility in this Nevadan's wry tales of snowboarding dropouts, random love, country living and the musician's lot in life. Friendly and rollicking, Talbot comes off like a great beer-drinking buddy who's decided to lay down some amiable songs drawn from life." -WILLAMETTE WEEK "Whether melancholy or mirthful, all of Talbot's songs are, to some extent, inspired by Lake Tahoe." -NORTH LAKE TAHOE BONANZA "Talbot shoots straight from the heart. Some say that the days of minstrels are dead. Anyone who has experienced Darin Talbot's music would definitely differ." -LAKE TAHOE DAILY TRIBUNE "Talbot's slow numbers are impressive: perfect end-of-the-day, by-the-fireplace songs." -RENO NEWS REVIEW "Rootsy jam-rocking songs about snowboarders. Imagine the vocalist from Blues Traveler singing along with The Other Ones about some guy on a Sims snowboard. Grinding Hammond sounds join up with tuneful guitars and traditional Americana backline to produce bouncy "extreme sport" Folk-Rock songs... the performance, melody, and soulful singing are near perfect." -LISTEN.COM TALBOT TESTIFIES_____ "I grew up on the shores of Lake Tahoe and have spent 26 years here. It is a tremendous privilege and real honor to be able to write songs about the Lake. For whatever reason, when it comes to Tahoe, the inspiration filters into my fingers and my voice. Tahoe is an outdoor heaven and I want to sing about it." -Ride Your Dreams, *DARIN TALBOT* Thank you for listening, and thank you for flying with AIR TAHOE RECORDS...
