Folk-rock, pop-alternative style of music that is beautiful, passionate, rare, spiritually compelling, and full of God's love- excellent. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Biography Her voice and lyrics are filled with passion, confidence, and expression. Introducing "Beautiful Love", the debut CD from singer-songwriter Hannah Ford. The California native delivers 10 self-penned alternative pop songs ranging from the rockin' title track to the intimately acoustic "Eyes of Compassion." With unique vocals that sound a cross between Alannis Morissette, Jewel, and Sheryl Crow, Hannah Ford is a name to be added among today's admired female artists. The tunes on "Beautiful Love" are a reflection of Hannah's heart, as she sings of truth and personal experiences, with lyrics that everyone can identify with. Topics range from God's love, to those in search of fulfillment, hope in the midst of pain, trust, compassion, a desire for an infilling of God's Spirit, rejection, and much more. Hannah is very real with her audiences. She's light-hearted and humorous, challenging and engaging. She has a deep love for God and for others, and a desire for others to come to know God's love for them. Her music exposes this. Hannah grew up singing in choirs and acting in plays occasionally, but it wasn't until her sophomore year of college at Humboldt State University, that she had her first concert, sharing her own music publicly. Since then, more and more opportunities have been opening up to her. She recently left her job of seven years teaching elementary school, to pursue this full time as God is leading her to do. Hannah just recently won "The Fresh New Artist of the Year Award" (Starfish Award) at the 2003 Starfish Competition in the Los Angeles area this past July. She was voted #1 by listeners of KKLA and The Fish 95.9, out of 2,300 entries. In 2002, she was voted to be the winner of the online Christian Pirate Radio's "Hook Award" for "Best Unsigned Artist." Her music and interviews have been featured on several radio stations, internet radio stations, and in 2001 she was able to sing on the "All Things Considered" show on National Public Radio. In December 2003, she had her first television interview on a Sioux Falls' local ABC news station, which included singing live on the air. On July 27, 2003, she had the opportunity to perform live at the Verizon Wireless Amphitheater in Irvine, CA, opening for Third Day, Jaci Velasquez, Toby Mac, and much more. She also had the opportunity to play three concerts at the Lighthouse Christian festival in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. 130,000 people attended this festival throughout Labor Day weekend. Many doors have opened up, and still are, because of this event. She currently leads worship for the young adults ministry in her church in Eagle Rock, CA. She is busy sharing her musical gifts with youth groups, coffee houses, churches, retreats, conferences, universities, schools, benefits, clubs, etc. It is her desire that her music would be used by God to draw all closer to Him- no matter what stage they're at in their spiritual journeys, no matter what their beliefs are, no matter what denomination they're a part of. What People Are Saying

"On 'Beautiful Love', Hannah has lyrics that are thought provoking, searching, and insightful, with that a unique alternative pop sound that hooks you into listening. It's no wonder listeners chose her as "Independent Artist of the Year!" Josh Jacobs Disc Jockey on 95.9 The Fish, L.A.'s major Christian radio station Music Director of Christian Pirate Radio at mycpr.com "Unique, beautiful and passionate songs with an honest vocal delivery that will hook you. Such obvious honesty is rare and compelling. Excellent!" Jeff Straub Texas Hot Radio "...Both the students and I didn't know what to expect; but when she was finished, there was not one person in the audience who didn't love what they heard... the music was awesome! Not only was it performed very well, but the style itself was incredible.... She had the entire audience participating with her on one of her songs...She became a friend to the students and ministered to them the way Christ did... You will not find many people that can combine all of these things so well with such a great resulting effect!" Joel Wood Youth pastor, Carson Bible Church, Carson, CA "Hannah is a beautifully talented songwriter and musician. Her music is amazing and we love it! It has quality, passion, a richness of worship, a heart of evangelism, a depth, and most of all, her music reflects who she really is." Pastor Mark Pickerell Christian Assembly Church, Los Angeles "Hannah Ford radiates God's joy and hope as she worships. Through her musical gifts and passionate heart God works in powerful ways." Worship Leader: Tommy Walker Christian Assembly Church, Los Angeles "Hannah has an incredible way of connecting to the hearts of those she is ministering to through her music. She is very real and her stories and music are sincere. Hannah was all about the ministry of Jesus and I was able to see both young and old respond to her message through song. We were blessed by the obvious ministry God has given her." Jason Lowery Pastor to Youth and Young Adults, First Baptist Church, Wichita, KS "Hannah's voice has a quality to it that is unique and captivating. She's an unqualified hit!" Jim Dennison Pastoral Staff, Soul Survivor, Watford, England "Hannah Ford is a very talented singer, songwriter and guitar player. She has a great stage presence. She has the ability to keep the flow of a show by playing great music, first and foremost, but also by being very engaging and witty between songs. She also has what seems to be a great relationship with the Lord that shines through her presentation in a very real and appealing way..." Mike Smith Jesus Jams Ministries, Los Angeles
