A unique blend of Sanskrit Mantra inspired vocals by Vocalist/Yogi James Hanrahan and Salsa inspired Grooves with exquisite flute melodies by flautist/master musician Scott Roewe 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, LATIN: Salsa Details: Jai Salsa is the creative endeavor of Scott Roewe and James Hanrahan. This CD is meant to be danced to. If you don't know how to dance to Salsa, listen to the CD everyday for 1 week, then take it to your local dance studio and ask them to show you how to dance Salsa to it. If you really don't want to dance, that's OK, but Scott knows you really do and suggests you try dancing in your bedroom when you are alone. Then go to a club where there is Salsa dancing and ask around about where you can take a lesson. To get more info on Salsa check out salsaweb.com A little about the people that made this CD. James Hanrahan is a Yogi/Vocalist who chants, sings, puts his feet behind his head and Salsa dances up a storm. He has been hiding out for many years in small rooms encouraging other people to ponder the possibility of putting their feet behind their heads. James can be found at Malibu Yoga, check out malibuyoga.net Scott Roewe has been playing all types of music since he could sit up straight. He loved Salsa since his early days dancing alone in his room as young boy in Delaware, but it wasn't until many years later that anyone showed him there actually was a dance called Salsa. He loves to combine elements of many styles of music into his Salsa. "That's why it's called Salsa" comments Scott. Scott cannot put his foot behind his head, and ponders the thought of ever being able to do it. Scott loves to dance Salsa and to teach dancing Salsa as well. Scott's other musical endeavor's have included being a founding member of the Wild Colonials, writing the theme to the TV Show "Rescue 911", composing all the music for the Star Trek CD ROM game "The Dominion Wars", composing a concert work titled "The Piping Plover" to help raise awareness about the Piping Plover, an endangered species that lives in Delaware, and performing live music for the Terra Gold's Sunday night flow class at the LA Yoga Center. Scott teaches Salsa dancing every Monday 6:30 PM) Thursday 5:30 PM Sunday 5:00 PM at the Dance Depot 816 Pico Blvd cross street Lincoln call 310 396 9091 to reserve a class or go to dancedsfor more info Caution - this can be addictive - Dancing is a lot of fun, but remember to take care of your body, stretch before dancing and when your body is tired sore, give it a rest. The dancers will still be there tomorrow, but if you abuse yourself, your body may not :).
