Bluegrass folk country; a collection of songs about railroading. 9 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: This CD is a collection of songs about railroading. I am a Locomotive Engineer for CSX Transportation, working the old L&N line from Louisville to Nashville. I am also a musician. I grew up in a very musical Family. My Grandfather was the lead chanter for the Greek Orthodox Church in Louisville, KY. My father and uncles played folk mass for St. Pauls Church. The entire Wright side of my family sang for the Social Male Chorus German Club. I bought my first Guitar when I was 14. John Prine was my stepfathers favorite, so I soon learned all the songs from that record. I started listening to Bluegrass in my 20s and soon I was hooked. I started fiddling with mandolin and soon started playing banjo. I wrote some of these songs sitting out on the train. I am a big fan of Good ol Kentucky Bluegrass, and this CD reflects that. Long working hours and crazy Union contracts give way for John Henry 2007 and Hub Engineer. The lonesome feeling out on the rails is captured in Nashville Bound and Workin. The L&N Dont Stop Here Anymore is perhaps my favorite song. It was written by Kentucky songwriter Jean Richie. If you are a railroader or love trains, this CD is for you. If you like Folky Bluegrass this is a must for your collection.
