(see: audikarecords.com, soundsoftheuniverse.com, roughtrade.com, jahsonic.com/ArthurRussell.html). I always think of how he would have played his cello with these songs, and I sometimes do think he was in the room as they were recorded. Check out the new Arthur Russell compilation by Audika on CDbaby. It's great. Before this, I was in a band with Joey Ramone (the Ramones) called the Resistance, where we sang some duets but mostly i sang back-ups and harmonies to him. We did some political rallies and Rock the Vote concerts, all around 1994. Joey was a musical and comedic genius, yes,no doubt about that, and had a really original mind. The Joey I knew was a wonderfully sweet soul, and hilarious, and fun, and just like Arthur in his fierce conviction to reach people with his music. It can be sad, the goodbye to the most beautiful, but let it be the seed that enters your soul, just like they wanted it to be. I did have a career as a back-up singer for a while and then I worked with all these amazing musicians like... Bernie Worrell. Chris Spedding. David Byrne. briansdiscographies.com/heads/uo.htm Arthur Russell. Chris and Tina Weymouth of the Tom Tom Club. (tomtomclub.com/history.html) I was a Casual God in Jerry Harrison's solo group by that name, connollyco.com/discography/jerry_harrison/walk.ht... Ernie Brooks. I was one of the mirrors w/Gabrielle

Roth emusic.com/album/10585/10585578.html I formed the (mostly)all girl band the Trashaholics in New York. Karen and Dana Kletter. the Milagro Saints(milagrosaints.com). Speaking of Ernie Brooks (Modern Lovers, Casual Gods, Elliot Murphy, Rhys Chatam)it's really exciting to be working on getting him and deerfrance(John Cale, Tom Verlaine) out on Moon Caravan Records. The label was started a couple of years ago with my partner Lee Kirby, and the idea was, to try to put forward Arthur Russell's music that was left behind. I'll always be very grateful to the incredible musicians who put their time and ideas into this project, especially Rick Lassiter. Rick hails from the band Ida, and before that, Lisa Loeb ricklassiter.com. You can pick up his and the other musicians on the disc with me who have solo cd's here on cdbaby. There are lots of funny stories to tell, but until then.... Thanks for buying the cd! love. jolei
