Details: MICHAEL BEHM Saving America The world is very different now. For man holds in his mortal hands the power to abolish all forms of human poverty and all forms of human life. John F. Kennedy, Inaugural Address, Jan. 20, 1961, Washington, D.C. Saving America, the title-track single off his forthcoming fifth album, released world wide through itunes. Saving America is a clarion call for progressive change from a Canadian to his neighbors south of the border. We love you America, sings Behm, who begins the track with an audio clip of JFKs famous speech before suggesting (in cleverly veiled metaphors) that the country needs another leader equally inspiring to address the legacy of the Bush presidency. Recorded and produced in Behms state-of-the-art home studio, Saving America is as artfully written, smoothly crafted and densely hook-laden as his previous single The Art of Letting Go, which scored significant radio airplay across Canada in 2007/08. The song was mixed in Vancouver by Mike Fraser (AC/DC, Elvis Costello, Metallica, Sam Roberts) and mastered at Bernie Grundman Mastering in Los Angeles by Brian Big Bass Gardner (whose credits stretch from Creedence Clearwater Revival in the 1960s to a whos who of contemporary hitmakers). Behm sang, played guitar and handled the lions share of the instrumentation on Saving America, the single and album, with assistance from drummer Pat Steward (The New Odds, Bryan Adams).
