FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop Details: Terri Stilwell is a passionate, soulful, fun inspirational pop/rock singer/songwriter/guitarist whose work has been compared to Joni Mitchell, Natalie Merchant, Janis Joplin India Arie. Her debut CD, One True Thing, is a musical journey about the life of a woman taking charge of her own destiny through friendship, love, positive self image and a desire to change the world's status quo. "Life," a song about owning your every moment, inspired the soundtrack for The Spyder; a short film by Susan Renee Hamilton which made its debut at the 1999 The San Francisco Gay Lesbian Film Festival. Terri Stilwell is a relentless live performer commanding the attention of audiences from intimate coffeehouses to world festivals with her acoustic guitar and engaging vocals. Terri is a veteran of LA girl-bands including The Color Wheel and Mad Man's Drum. Last year, Terri joined a choir of hundreds to perform Beethoven's "Ode To Joy" at the Bill Graham Civic Auditorium in San Francisco for the Northern California Culture Festival : A Buddhist Celebration Of Diversity, Non-Violence World Peace. Thousands gathered to hear the choir and see a performance of the musical REV IT UP. Terri also performed with the Silicon Valley Trio at the The 2nd Annual Earth Charter Summit at The Ikeda Auditorium in San Francisco. Terri Stilwell is currently hard at work recording new songs for her second CD, Simply Believe, with a full band behind her. "Save Yourself" and "B Natural" are pure pop/rock hits while "Seduction" has a bluesy feel to it. Recently, she has been joined onstage by drummer Karinne Figueroa, who fills out Terri's sound live as she prepares to play with a full band when the CD is released. Meanwhile, Terri always keeps her fans posted on her upcoming live shows on her website at terristilwell.com.
