king of south park - take a journey into the disturbing mind of one of houston's rising underground screw d.j./ freestyle artist 8 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Vic Newman is a rising underground screw d.j. and tha CEO of SlaughtaHouze Ent. Such as pioneers like d.j. Michael Watts of Swishahouse and the late great d.j. Screw, not only is Vic Newman an outlet for undiscovered talent in Houston but he is also the flagship artist of Block Party Records. His lyrical content is not matched by any other local artist. The traditional southern style of syrup sippin, 24 inch spinning rims,weed smoking aren't displayed in this concept thought of by tha CEO of SlaughtaHouze. "King of South Park" is the second album released under Slaughtahouze Entertainment / Block Party Records. His first album, "Money Power P" was considered to raunchy and explicit for distributors to market. Vic Newman, known to his entourage as Vic New, has his very own style and lyrics. He writes and co-produces his own music. Block Party Records CEO Dre Bucannon, serves as the resident producer of Slaughtahouze Entertainment. The two together form an exhilarating and totally throwed off combination called "Tha CEO Club", with all original tracks provided by Dre Bucannon. Vic New and Dre Bucannon are responsible for the rising solo careers of Wadae, Mo'Bux, T-Byrd, Rodney Moe, T.B. and Macadous of KPT (Kasserine Pass Texas) and former SlaughtaHouze affiliate, Sonny Lee, who back in 2000 recorded the infamous "F Flip (Tha Lil' Flip diss)" help define SlaughtaHouze Entertainment as one of the most raunchiest and completely throwed off independent label in Houston. Not having signed a major distributing contract, SlaughtaHouze continously push out material most wouldn't even dare of putting on a compact disc. This raw and in your face method, is considered tha Houze trademark. Vic New is still serving Houston's south side with explicit and overzealous mixtapes such as the CEO Club produced,

"MUSIC THAT I F*& TO" "THA PASSION OF THA SLUT" collections. Vic Newman's third album, "Confessions of a Porn King" is a double CD of totally sick s that is expected to make more waves in the underground circuit. Vic New Dre Bucannon are currently working on solo albums for Mo' Bux ("Mo'Bux, Mo'Cash, Mo'Digits") and Wadae's underground album, "Yellabone Assassin". All scheduled for late 2005/early 2006 releases. They are also working on another CEO Club album titled, "We Ain't Hungry No More" and Vic Newman's fourth solo album, "Tha Evolution of Kevin Solomon" Hit up that SlaughtaHouze for more updates and releases from SlaughtaHouze Entertainment/Block Party Recordz. Also hit up Vic Newman at 832 687-2611 for comments, and booking info.
