Wendy Bower's pensively poetic lyrics and graceful vocal artistry are immersed in memorable melodies and unique chord progressions that are deeply inspirational. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: As the Director of Divine Reflections Academy of the Arts in Wickenburg, AZ, Wendy teaches and choreographs dance, voice and songwriting in addition to writing and singing her own music. Twice a year she directs productions at the Del E. Webb Center for the Performing Arts in Wickenburg, involving dance, music and drama, including many of her original compositions. She writes from her personal worship experience as well as being inspired by her students, with a Joni Mitchell quality to her lyrics and sound. Wendy began writing music during high school when she won the American Music Association's National Songwriting Contest in the Gospel Music Category, yet went on to pursue a more practical career in the business world. After the birth of her first child, she returned to her musical calling. In August 2005 she was a Semi-Finalist in the Gospel Music Association's Song of the Year Competition for Unsigned Songwriters. She has periodically performed live on television for the PTL show, and has been a worship leader in a variety of evangelical denominations. Currently she ministers in music throughout the state of AZ sharing her original music. As a mother of two beautiful daughters (featured on the front and back of the CD) she enjoys growing artistically with them along with the many other students she considers herself privileged to work with.
