The answer: God, children, and music. I had no idea He wanted me to be a song writer and make a CD, but thats what He did with me! The world now has 3 NEW ORIGINAL LULLABIES! And now, a beautiful lullaby CD Lullabies for Lil Christians is here to bless you and your little ones with beautiful songs to bring peace, joy and sleep. It includes 3 new songs, plus favorites, such as "Jesus Loves Me", "Brahms' Lullaby" and "Ave Maria". All featuring the beautiful, rich vocals of Christy Suggett. When my second daughter was born, I wrote the music to Babies Wont Keep. A sweet, beautiful little lullaby. Then, when I became the Executive Producer of Whispering Angels, LLC, He sent me other wonderful lullabies, such as Whispering Angels, our title track, and My Little Bundle. Whispering Angels is a song derived from a poem Baby written in 1871, about a mother asking her child how God made her baby so wonderful, and her childs sweet responses. The call and response between the mother and the child vocals are precious! When writing My Little Bundle, I wanted to capture the love and joy of a mother holding and rocking her baby. I have such warm, joyful memories of those special moments. Both songs have brought heart-warming tears to moms eyes while listening. All the songs were made sweet and beautiful by the musical genius of my talented producers and musicians, Bill Cabrera and Matthew Elias. When making the CD Lullabies for Lil Christians, my team had three things in mind: God, all the sweet babies and children, and their mommies and daddies. This is a lullaby CD moms and dads will enjoy, even the 100th time at 2 a.m. in the morning. The music is beautiful, created and performed live by talented musicians. So soft and soothing, it even put my type A self to sleep! Two more are currently in the works, so stay tuned! The entire concept of Whispering Angels, LLC, even the name, has all been God guided and God-inspired, so from the very beginning, I made the commitment to give back to God what He asks of us, and that is to tithe. In that spirit, Whispering Angels donates 10% of all proceeds to a charity for God's work. For a complete list of charitable organizations to whom we donate, please see our website. Sweet Dreams! Ann Bomersbach, Executive Producer
