Surrounded by family and friends, a young songwriter with raw talent and a big reputation absorbs images from his environment and turns them into carefully crafted lyrics. William "WILL FEEL" Phillips has recorded a number of tracks as a solo artist, everything ranging from Rap/Hip-Hop, gospel rap as well as writing hooks for R&B singers; he's had time to develop a trained ear for music. In addition to developing that ear he also picked up a few industry terms such as "Bullets" for example, a term used when referring to hit songs. WILL FEEL's latest works include a collaboration with a Virginia native by the name of LIVE. WILL FEEL kicks off the first verse on the song titled "Greatest MC", a tribute to all the MC's who inspired not only the artist themselves but Hip-Hop as a whole. Following the success of their first project, they recorded "Back to Back", an attempt to display how the signature styles of the East Coast sound when blended with lyrics from the West. LIVE is also featured on WILL FEEL's debut LP titled IMMACULATE, the only CD ever recorded to offer a money back guarantee. This guarantee was spawned because according to WILL FEEL too many artist are recording fifteen to seventeen track albums with only two or three songs that are worth listening to. Sorry to say but this offer isn't available to on-line users. "I feel bad that I was unable to guarantee my work to people on the internet", says William, but he's still confident that music lovers will enjoy it nonetheless. In regards to professional recording, in the summer of 2003 a Sacramento based advertising agency picked up a radio commercial which featured WILL FEEL. The ad which ran State wide was an attempt to educate youth about safe sex. In a nutshell WILL FEEL has been writing for the past nine years and composing for the last five. He's worked with groups and solo artist alike is now anticipating the time when he can showcase his talent to the world.
