ELECTRONIC: Virtual Orchestra, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: "21st Century Sun" is Craig's eleventh CD in which he which further explores the outer reaches of the electronic virtual medium. Very soundtracky and mood enhancing. Craig's roots lie in serious classical training with one of his earliest performances of Samuel Barber's Piano Sonata earning him the Honor Award from the Detroit Musicians League. He also has a Bachelors Degree in Music Composition from Wayne State University in Detroit Michigan. After many years of performing classical and mainstream venues Craig left Detroit and moved to Los Angeles to pursue a career in music. His first years in L.A. were spent freelancing various jobs including film scoring and transcribing music for such artists as Wendy Carlos and Eddie Jobson. Eventually he landed a job as chief studio engineer at 2KSounds who were affiliated with E.M.I. and Virgin Records. Here he worked with an array of artists from folk to Rap including Glen Campbell, Randy Bachman and Michael Narada Walden. He left 2KSounds and started his own record label, Random Arch Music where he keeps busy producing his own as well as other artists CD's. Make sure to check out Craig's Christmas CD,"Do You Hear What I Hear?" an eclectic synth Christmas, and his other CD's as well.
