Details: Dawnya Clarine (Dawnya is pronounced like Tonya with a D Don-ya. Clarine is pronounced Claireeen) About Dawnya: Dawnya Clarine's first album, Walking On Water, divulges 45 years of living through a voice that sounds twenty-something fresh. Blues, pop, soul, and jazz weave their way through songs that come from the positive side of the street. Dawnya's smooth, laid back voice warmly invites you into her song. Her clever and often thought provoking lyrics will keep you there. Like stumbling across a diary of private thoughts and personal lessons, she gracefully welcomes you into her private world. You will feel as if you've shared secrets with a close friend. Her genre-defying work takes aim at audiences who want respect in lyrics and long for something familiar and grounded in the music. Release of Walking On Water, comes after raising three sons (two with Aspergers Syndrome, a form of Autism), a career in communications and video production, and years of performing. Dawnya has performed as a solo artist, and with a number of bands. She opened for some top acts including Tower of Power and The 5th Dimension, she has appeared twice on the national Easter Seals telethon, was headline act at the Heartland BrewFest, and has entertained at multitudes of gigs in Minnesota, Iowa, California, and Idaho. Dawnya now devotes full-time to songwriting and performing. She lives in North Idaho, where she and her song partners have produced a freshman album with qualities that only living a lot of life can bring. Dawnya's tunes Walking on Water and Breathe in Love can currently be heard on 95.3 KPND in Sandpoint, ID, and at AcousticFuel.com. Tags: pop
