REVIEWS: Cited "Artist of the Month" by The Queens Gazette, Queens Tribune and Bayside Times in honor of Barnes and Noble musical event. "The dynamic duo thrilled the audience with the 7-string guitar, T.V. broadcasted new-age piano and jazz vocals from their many CD'S... Besides being talented musicians, Ed and Carol are wonderful people to work with"...Gina Lockwood-Sheehan, Community Relations Manager, Barnes Noble, Fresh Meadows With response to a "thank you" for coming to the Barnes and Noble concert, Gary Fitzgerald of FITZMUSIC (Editor's Choice Music) responds "I enjoyed your show so it was my pleasure." Song "Night" voted #1 song in the Broadjam Top 10 Chicago Blues category. Mark Maxwell Abushady, NYC music reviewer says in the "Holiday" issue Dec/Jan.2007 of Creations Magazine: "Intimate, cocktail lounge music . . . we forget how enjoyable this music can be, but singer Carol Nicodemi and partner, jazz instrumentalist Edmond Paul Nicodemi, remind us! Beyond her warm, well toned vocals Carol surprises with a flexibility in her vocal instrument, notably on the opening cut Nocturne. Edmond, who has also released a solo CD of his piano work, provides a beautiful partnering to the vocals with jazz guitar and flute. A number of excellent original compositions comprise half of the recordings on this album, with a couple of standards thrown in for good measure. A musical mood-setter, which should please jazz aficionados and novices alike."
