Seven gifted vocalists paint pictures of heaven with a colorful tapestry of worship praise. Ranging in styles from hip-hop to calypso to jazz , "HOP music" is carefully woven together with the sole objective of ministering to the very heart of God. 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: With their name derived from Galatians 3:29, Heirs of Promise has ministered the gospel nationally and internationally from a variety of settings which include church and community concerts, national conferences, prisons, and television appearances in the United States to assorted venues in London, Nigeria, Barbados, St. Vincent, and Jamaica. During the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games, this talented seven-member ensemble ministered to the world at three Olympic venues as part of the Olympic Arts Festival. Heirs of Promise believes in the importance of sharing their testimony with others and it is that personal philosophy that prompted the ministry to produce their first project, "Clean The Innermost" in 1997. Composed of ten (10) original tracks, "Clean the Innermost" proved to be highly successful resulting in Heirs of Promise being nominated for Best New Artist by the Atlanta Gospel Choice Awards in 1998. In the summer of 2003, Heirs of Promise released its long awaited sophomore project, entitled "For The King". With each of the thirteen (13) tracks written from the hearts of Heirs of Promise's gifted members, "For The King" is destined for even greater success. Incorporating praise and worship seminars as part of their unique ministry, this innovative ensemble has accepted the calling to instruct other gospel music ministries in the area of praise and worship. Heirs of Promise music is energetic, with praise that is infectious and worship that is guaranteed to lead you into the very presence of God. powerful heart expressing songs from the pens of Heirs of Promise woven together in a delightful and colorful tapestry to minister to God and the Body of Christ. "Hallelujah" (Isaiah 57:15) an uplifting exaltation of celebration with its riveting bass line will thrust you to a higher place of jubilation. There you'll clap your hands, pat your feet, and D-A-N-C-E! "This Is For The King", with its majestic intro and funky hip-hop rhythms, lets the listener in on the psalmist's motivation for everything he does... glorifying the King of Kings! "Heirs of Promise", a song based on Romans 8, with its international flare of Latin rhythmic pulses and calypso style flowing uniquely together forming a fresh sound with an ageless message. "Your Perfect Love", with its jazzy flavor, speaks of the infinite, unconditional love of God towards man regardless of how unfaithful and disobedient we are at times. The psalmist expresses to the heart of God everlasting gratitude for his mercy and grace towards us and makes a commitment to forever worship Him. "Teach Me to Hear", a song written from a submitted psalmist's heart desiring to hear and follow, to a loving God, invokes visions of the psalmist David sitting by the water brook during a time of meditation. "Fill Me With Your Holiness" (Ephesians. 1:4), with its Spanish guitar flavor, is a song that reminds us, as Paul reminded the Ephesians, that we should be holy, a life separated from the world, living our lives unto a holy God. "Deeper Than Most", a song that cries out to God in expressing the psalmist's highest aspiration to go beyond the normal and mundane to a deeper level of intimacy with God. "Thank You" (I Chronicles 16:8) is a joyful ovation of praise reflecting thanks in every upbeat measure of this resounding duet with a very real spiritual message to provoke us all to surrendering thanks to God. "Psalm 63" is a smooth flowing choral rendition of a Davidic Prayer perspective of how to start, continue and end our day by the spirit of God (to move upon our hearts). "I Need More of You", with a simple, yet profound and desperate cry to God expressing our daily need for His Presence, this songs places our hearts right at the feet of Jesus. With its ocean breeze sounds, and soothing tone, the atmosphere is set to encourage intimacy with our God, recognizing that He alone can meet our needs as he draws us near to Him through the valleys of life and the victories. "I Cry Holy" (Revelations 4) is a worshiper's view of the throne room of heaven that paints an awesome picture of worship in its truest since and a heartfelt desire to be a part of the eternal heavenly experience. "Try Him For Yourself" has infectious rhythms and a slammin' bass line but don't let the beat fool ya! We've all been in situations that overwhelmed us as men and women of God but we serve a God that brought us out of darkness into his marvelous light. Call him right now - he's the only one that can and will deliver. "Put On The Whole Armor of God" (Ephesians 6:10-17) with its pounding bass line and rhythms reminiscent of a marching army going to war is a rallying cry of exhortation to all the saints in the Body of Christ to persevere and be strong in the Lord. Once you've heard "For The King", you'll want to hear it again and again and again!
