Related styles: FOLK: Free-folk, ELECTRONIC: Folktronic People who are interested in Bjrk The Postal Service Tunng should consider this download. Details: Jean Parlette is a quartet from the North of Holland. Principle songwriter Jos Blomsma started the band in order to take his unique blend of home-made electronics and classical instruments on the road. Jean Parlette has been compared to acts such as Tunng and Psapp, but the unusual line-up and the sometimes even more unusual way the instruments are played make Jean Parlette stand out as an intriguing live band. The electronic elements in their songs are complemented by Laurens van der Meulens shimmering rhodes parts, David van Egmonds exquisite fingerpicking and Suze Steemers tastful cello. Jean Parlette likes to sing about the Big Topics of Life but leaves just the right gaps in his lyrics for the listener to fill. Jean Parlette is friendly yet curious
