This Contemporary Gospel CD has a little Pop/ Jazz/Praise and Worship tunes that are heart felt and written from personal experiences. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: Mary Caldwell Evans Mary C. Evans born 12-25-65 in Pine Bluff, Ark. I am the eighth child out of eleven children. I sang in Sunday Morning Services at the age of two for Mother Lulu Williams. She would give me tea- cakes in a brown paper bag after service. We relocated to St. Louis, Mo. in 1971, where my love for music grew. I was bused from the Inner City to school The Visual Performing Arts Center. At this school I learned many different cultures, styles and kinds of music. We later relocated to Memphis, TN in 1978. I won Queen of my school Miss Carver High in 1984. I performed an original piece on the piano and sang. I have been married for 19 years to my husband and Producer Bobby Evans. We have 3 children two boys 21/14 yrs old and 4yr old daughter. My husband and I married straight out of high school. We had no vision, purpose or destiny together. We have been divorced and remarried 3 times. Even in our ignorance, disobedience and shortcomings, God has still been merciful to us. God has given us an awesome ministry together through our personal experiences. I had an abortion when I was 18 yrs old. I was troubled in my spirit for yrs. I did not understand what was causing this alteration in my personality. "Forgive Yourself" is a prophetic song; I dreamed straight from heaven. God delivered me and changed my life in this song. I am compelled to get this song to everybody. I know God gave me this song because he knew I would not be ashamed to tell about myself. It is my responsibility to do everything I can; I am held accountable to give God's people a prophetic word from heaven. Every song on this CD has a personal story behind them.
