FOLK: Power-folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Meet Megan McElroy, an upbeat new folk lyricist, singer activist, rhythmystic song crafter, guitar playing optimist, musician bordering on comedian, heroine of women, and unabashed groove queen percussionist. At 31 Megan is celebrating her 15th year as a performer and recording artist. She has two CD's (Buzz, and The Second Second Coming of the Big Big Bang) and usually performs with a hot and sassy all female band. She can also provide an outstanding solo show. Her clever lyrics are unsurpassed in quality and originality by even the most amazing songwriters. A festival junkie, McElroy is seeking bookings at music festivals and clubs where her eclectic styles allow her to fit nicely into diverse line-ups. Her radio single "JUNE" which addresses an infatuation with "Leave it to Beaver" super-mom June Cleaver, is a sexy funny, catchy tune. True entertainment is priceless, and McElroy offers a fresh brew of hopefulness, wit and original artistry for all to enjoy. Are you ready to feel the passion of the world changing for the better? This is one brutal folkster whose time has come.
