Singer/songwriter from Denmark (in english). Catchy and well-arranged folk pop songs with thoughtful lyrics. Michael's mantra: "Dance like nobody's watching". 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Michael Boesen recently released his first solo album "Angel On My Shoulder". Michael is a well-known profile on the Danish music scene. He has put his fingerprints on many great musical projects in Denmark. Political rock in the seventies, provoking cabaret shows in the eighties and nineties (2 number one hits on the single chart), score for theatre and movies and much more. On this CD he goes back to his roots: singer / songwriting. Ever since his debut in the folk club Purple Door in 1967 in Copenhagen, his heart has been with the good song, meaningful lyrics and a catchy melody. The love for music, experience of life and personal growth has been the inspiration for this album. On "Angel On My Shoulder" you experience Michael's personal universe of cognition and transformation expressed in 13 melodic and well-arranged songs. The joyous message of the CD is expressed in the manifest on track 13: "Dance like nobody's watching Sing like there's no one to hear Work like you don't need the money And love like you've never been hurt" (based on a quotation by Mark Twain) "Angel On My Shoulder" contains 13 profound and catchy songs. Songs that in Michael's own words never were written without: Meeting a woman, The Oprah Show, Mark Twain, a course in self development, a clairvoyance and some dishes that were finally done.
