ROCKSTEADY is an eclectic group of music missionaries primarily focused on being catalyst for youth REVIVAL world wide. Led by the husband and wife team of Mark Karin Sandiford, the band's gritty, pop sound is a refreshing twist to an ever evolving contemporary Christian music scene. Notably utilizing "in da club" DJ rap styles combined with soulful and melodic female vocals over solid funk and hip-hop beats, the band is clearly re-defining what has been commonly accepted as worship music. Mark, former front man and producer for Christian reggae group Temple Yard, brings several years of experience, both in terms of production muscle and on-stage energy to this essemble. His Brazilian wife Karin, a formidable songwriter and worship leader at their home base of World Harvest Church in Roswell, Georgia, also fronts the attack with her latin-esque vocals and world music flair. Mark Karin: "Our heart is to take the powerful word of God to the world and to impart through passionate worship the reality of Gods transforming power in everyday lives."
