solo piano 12 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Seth Kaufman developed his solo piano sound in Ithaca and New Orleans. Drawing upon influences in jazz, rock, and minimalism, Kaufman's style has been said to "push the piano's limits" (Times Picayune, New Orleans). Kaufman's works are often inspired by silent film, literature, and experimental theatre. "Chambers of the Sea" on The Blue Light was inspired by "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock" by T.S. Eliot. "First Moment" was composed for a production of "Savage/Love" a play by Sam Shepard and Joseph Chaikin. The Blue Light also includes live performances of "Cascadilla Glen" and "Cayuga's Waters" Seth Kaufman is a Bosendorfer Artist and performs regularly in Boston, New Orleans, NYC and San Francisco. A new CD, Compartments, is planned for 2007. A preview of Compartments may be heard online at wnyc.org/shows/newsounds/episodes/2006/11/29
