hip-hop's breathe of fresh air with lyrical content depicting urban life in the inner cities over versatile power packed tracks that are sure to get your head sprung and to reach and teach the young. 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: who is she... Shes Songwriter/Rapper "Tha Pos. Senda!" Known in Chicago for being a phenomenal poet throughout her teen years. She is currently in the studio putting the finishing touches on her debut CD entitled "Message From Tha Senda". Chicago crowned her "Tha Positive Senda!" when she was 15, in part because she was rapping and performing poetry sending positive messages in every venue that she could find to perform in. After turning spoken word into poetry in motion, and opening a show in Chicago for Outkast, she came to the attention of LCW management who immediately signed her and are negotiating distribution for her project. "Pos." as she has been dubbed by her peers of recording artist, as well as a dedicated following, brings themes of life in her rap that reflect the human experience. Her stage show is a power packed performance full of energy. When "Pos." is playing local venues in the Midwest, she is accompanied by back up singers and some of the hottest dancers out today; all of which are a part of her RFTG Klique ("Rooted From The Ground"), Pos. Sendas Entertainment Company, under the direction of LCW Management/Chicago. The "Pos. Senda!" is bringing it to U live for 2005. With a great production team behind her, she is ready to bring you a great CD with songs such as, "My Serenity" bringing Hip Hop a breath of fresh air, "Life Changes" a depiction of urban life in the inner cities, and the powerful track "Mama How Come Daddys Not Around" which is Pos. signature piece based on her true story of being raised by a single parent. I dont think it will be long before her skillz will bring her an extended fan base to match the one she already has. Chicago has brought you artists such as Kanye West, Da Brat and a host of others, but I really feel that in the near future "Tha Pos. Senda!" will have her place among the stars.
