This playful dose of sarcasm gives an insight into the outer reaches of where hip-hop has massively grown, while sitting on the knee of Uncle Angleoneous. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: With deep rotten roots, spoiled never seeing the light of day Angle releases his second full length entitled "Let's Make UH Deal". Filled with all the discontent and apathy you would expect from an honest Iowa rapper, Angle shares his perception with colorful metaphors and solid stories woven into the perfectly fitting organic soundscapes. From a list of some of some of Iowa's finest beat-smith's including, Aeon Grey and Coolzey, Angle himself makes his debut being credited with co-production on a few tracks. An album of anthems for Iowa's mass of unappreciated artists and a "shut-the-fuck-up" to those who have no place further poisoning the art form and sterilizing the growth of Iowa's identity. "Let's Make UH Deal" is not just rocks from the catapult however, underlying the layers of discontent sits a sense of pride, pronounced honestly on the descriptive song "Dez Moynez". A list of common sights that reside in Des Moines and it's residents, it could very well be the most honest song recorded about the metro area. "Let's Make UH Deal" is part comedy, part tragedy, and part spit in your face east-sider. Angle doesn't pull any punches delivering what is sure to be, another album slept on locally, finding it's appreciation outside the city limits, perhaps making the artist brave to put so much focus on his surroundings.
