Some Reviews: Best of The Capital Region 2003 Voted number two best local music act in the Capital Region. - ALBANY TIMES UNION Blackcat Elliot definitely put out a quality show at WCDB's recent anniversary event, engaging some SUNY students to the point that they sought me out for comment after the show. The general consensus was that it was nice to hear some quality garage-rock. Definitely check them out if that sounds like your thing. - DJ SKILLS 90.9 WCDB Blackcat Elliot plays the rock. What kind of rock? The only kind! The guitar rock. And yes, that would be pronounced git-tar. The Blackcat gang is actually a phoenix-like little trio that has risen up from the ashes of a number of local bands. Guitarist Kostas Gus Hais, for example, played with bassist Jamie St. Denis in both Smallest Cow in the World and North Again. He also played with drummer Mark Klein in Dionysus. But St, Denis didn't play with Klein in anything. But he does now. And they play the rock. - MICHAEL ECK ALBANY2GO.COM
