Bumpinmusic was founded by Neil N. Lemon and Deborah D. Lemon in the year 2000. Located in Spring Valley California, the company strives to provide the best and most satisfying music for all music lovers of Jazz, R&B, Pop, Soul, etc. The company established it's website address at bumpinmusic as a means to promote it's music worldwide. His New web address is AtlantaMusicBands.Com Because of religious commitments, Neil Lemon adopted the format of showcasing the talent of vocal singers voices to bring to life the music and the lyrics that are all penned by him. Bumpinmusic is doing something different and expects to splash on the music scene in a big way! Neil Lemon is from his birth town Gary Indiana, and was a childhood friend of the cousins of Michael Jackson. Their musical interest sparked Neil's musical interest as well. Only until the summer of 1985 did Neil get serious about writing and producing music by using two cassette deck units with mixers. This way he would record drums manually by beating on a box with his hands, and then overdubbing the drums with an old electric bass, and then keyboard. The next step was singing his vocals himself for chorus and then the lead vocals. Recording his first raw song on tape called "Regrets", Neil went to his cab driving job in Coronado California to let his friends hear it to get their reactions. His fellow cab drivers were very impressed! There was of course more room for improvement. As the years went by, Neil got more mature at songwriting and got himself better recording equipment. While deciding not to be a spotlight singer, he decided to use vocal singers who would effectively communicate his songs and to use professional arrangers who had top of the line music gear that could elevate his songs to new heights. This is what is reflected in his current CD BUMPINMUSIC The Journey. Neil Lemon already has his goal set on recording his next CD for some crazy jazz material he has in his mind.
