Details: Since quitting his job as a history teacher in 2001 to pursue a career in music, Chip Houston has accomplished things in the past few years that take many artists ten years. With the release of his first solo album, Chasing the Dark, Houston introduces himself to the world as a seasoned veteran of the local Atlanta music scene. Houston's song "Aimless" has been featured on 99X as well as several Athen's area stations like 102.1 Magic. He has opened for a George Foreman boxing match, and performed in many renowned clubs in the Southeast --- and was seen on FOX 5's GOOD DAY ATLANTA! This native Atlantan attributes his success to his faithful and growing fan base and to his friends and family. As a solo acoustic artist, Houston travels light, but on Chasing the Dark he shows his versatility as the leader of an incredible band. His sound is a mixture of Edwin McCain, John Mayer, James Taylor and Kenny Loggins.
