Classic country is alive and well. We keep it just like it was meant to be. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Honky Tonk Details: Branson's Hottest Duet! Mark Ray Bio: Mark was born and raised in Ennis, Texas and was raised in Freeport, Texas with his parents and a younger brother. He had his own country band for years called "Rodeo Guns" He grew up singing in church and began performing at the age of 5 and sang "End of the World" by Skeeter Davis for family and friends. His "idols" are Jack Green, Alan Jackson, Marty Robins and Hank Williams Sr. and loves to sing new and old country. Lallie: Lallie was born in Moline, Illinois (the Quad Cities). Both of Lallie's parents were country musicians. Her mother, Dianne Whiles wrote the 1970's hit country song "I was raised on country sunshine" sang by Dottie West which also topped the charts in Europe and was featured on a Coca Cola commercial. Lallie was the second of 6 children, all of which love to sing and performed using lots of harmony. Lallie first performed on stage at the age of 5 and sang "Manhattan Kansas" by Glen Campbell. At the age of 17 she cut her first demo in California. Lallie took second place in a recording contract competition in which Suzie Bogus won. She sang in a Contemporary Christian band in the early 2000's. Lallie's passion is old country. Duet Bio: Lallie and Mark Ray met, fell in love and were "married in a fever hotter than a pepper sprout" in Branson, Missouri. Their harmony and chemistry are unsurpassed and their CD truly reflects the "off and on" elements of any good country style relationship.
