Her impressive octave range is both amazing and delightful to hear. She started singing praises unto the Lord at an early age. God's plan for her life has always been to use her voice to spread the Gospel. Singing her first solo at around age 6, "All Day All Night, Angels Watching Over Me," impressed upon all listening that she was truly blessed to be a vessel for the Lord. She is a member of the New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church of Flint, Michigan, under the leadership of Bishop Odis A. Floyd, the Second Presiding Bishop of The Full Gospel Fellowship, and the tutelage of world renowned Minister of Music, Elder Jeff LaValley. She is a faithful member of the dynamic Inspirational Voices and Praise Team, where she often ministers her melodious tones to the congregation. God has blessed her ministry and afforded her the opportunity to minister with such artists as Donnie McClurkin, Tremaine Hawkins, Vickie Winans, Vanessa Bell Armstrong, Darryl Coley, Dorothy Norwood, Betty Griffith Kellar, Michael and Regina Winans, and on the 2004 release, "The Greatest Gift," by Beau Williams. Her solo projects include the Full Gospel Mass Choir, "I'm Grateful" with Gospel Centric Records; New Jerusalem Mass Choir, "The Name of Jesus", which received a Soul Train Award Nomination; The Flint Messengers of Christ, "I Surrender", and the recent 2005 release of her own solo project entitled, "That's What You Are To Me," featuring Bishop Odis Floyd, on "My Purpose", Minister Jeff LaValley on "Walk With Me", Emmuel Tedford, music director for Pastor Marvin Winans, on "Draw Me Nearer". She has performed on various other projects; a starring role in the gospel play, "In The Midst of The Storm", a performance with George Michaels (Auburn Hills, MI), an award winning commercial for local TV, Channel 5-WNEM, lead singer in the touring play, "Save Yourself Sister", female soloist of the year from The Flint Area Gospel Music Awards sponsored by Just For Her magazine, several appearances on Michigan Alive, a Christian broadcast affiliate of TCT, WAQP-TV49 in Saginaw, Michigan, and an appearance on Bobby Jones Gospel. Her belief is that her life experiences have prepared her for such a time as this to minister in song for the Lord to the saved and the unsaved. She is truly the psalmist for this season.
