Details:  The following quotes are from letters received regarding "A Soldier's Prayer." The originals are posted online at the Official Website link  "While Hollywood actors and film makers arrogantly yell about their right to speak their minds, we need to remember the young men and women who keep those rights secure. From the American Revolution to Iraqi Freedom, the 'finest we had' were willing to go and fight and die. They faced the tyrants down in the sands of Babylon rather than you and me facing them down in the streets of American cities. Here's to our best and bravest - our fallen heroes." Dean Jones (actor) "This poetic tribute captures some of the very personal feelings of a soldier in combat. It reflects the selfless service and dedication of our great Nation's warfighters who make the ultimate sacrifice and 'A Soldier's Prayer' also highlights the incalculable cost of freedom. Thanks for your contributions in creating this special work and your support of our troops!" Richard B. Myers (Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff) "Thank you for sending me a copy of your CD honoring the American troops fighting in Iraq. I very much appreciate your thoughtfulness and your support. Lynne joins me in sending our best wishes to you." Dick Cheney (Vice President of the United States) "Thank you for your kind letter and CD, 'A Soldier's Prayer.' I truly appreciate your thoughtful words expressing unyielding support for the magnificent young men and women of our Armed Forces. It is good for our troops to hear your message; such patriotism reinforces the importance of their mission to ensure our security." Peter Pace (Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff / General, United States Marine Corps) "I value your efforts to honor our service members. I appreciate you keeping me in mind." Senator Ted Stevens ----- Lyric to "A Soldier's Prayer": One hot desert morning at dawn's early light while trudging through the sand I found a piece of paper clutched in a young man's hand And upon that paper the words he wrote were not filled with despair Just thoughts from the heart of a brave young lad he called it, "A Soldier's Prayer" I took the paper from his hand and read it aloud... Will there be a place in heaven for a person such as me Who, through youth and the love for life isn't all you'd have me be? I've been a man but a short time now and I'll ask you this, if I might Isn't fighting for freedom's cause a fight that's always right? The men I've killed, some things I've done are not things I've wanted to do But a job I believe had to be done by we who believe in you I had those thoughts upon my mind when I heard that deadly sound Then, all around me, one by one my friends fell to the ground Somehow I knew before it hit fear ran up my spine I felt the blast tearing my side, I knew this one was mine There'll be much grief for loved ones at home when they learn that I am dead Please ease their pain and let them know these things that I have said Time's run out, I can feel death's sting, oh, God, please hear my plea Let there be a place in heaven for a person such as me Lord, this is the chaplain, I'm here with this lad, our country's given the finest it had We who are older and have studied your word know this boy's prayer is more than just heard It is answered with your love and the promise that there'll be A special place in heaven for a person such as he
