Inspired by the Jazz and Blues greats, Nova brings her own warmth and pure vocal expression to this compilation of jazz and popular favorites from the 1930's to present day compositions. 10 MP3 Songs

JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, BLUES: Blues Vocals Details: Nova began her formal vocal education at the age of seven years old, and added the study of piano at twelve years old. She continued studying both instruments throughout high school and college, and during her summers studied classical voice at the University of California at Santa Barbara Summer Vocal Institute, and jazz voice at Berklee College of Music, Boston, MA. Nova graduated from Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, CA, with a BA in voice with a theory/composition emphasis, and a double major in recording arts pending. After college, Nova pursued her interest in the recording process by assisting on an album with Elton John producer, Greg Penny. She continued her technical studies at Larrabee Sound Studios in Los Angeles, where she assisted such artists as Madonna, Snoop Dog, Tool, etc. In 1999 Nova produced her own live recorded CD, from her vocal performance entitled, "A Night with Nova," which includes a compilation of ballads, country and blues tunes. In 2002, Nova collaborated with Daniel Ash of "Bauhaus" and "Love and Rockets" fame, on his new solo, self-entitled album. Nova is featured on two tracks on the album, one of which she co-wrote. Nova is currently continuing to teach, perform, and record. Her newest CD, "Summer Moon," a collection of jazz favorites from the 1930's to present day compositions is available now.
